Why don't the Echo comb the Hawesville Democrat? That paper has up the Greenback ticket and also supports the Poore-Henry-Gaines combination.

We are again in receipt of the beautiful Oriental Courier, the most charming literary paper published. It grows in interest with each number. Send ten cents for a sample copy to L. Lam Smith, publisher, 912 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa.

The Court of Appeals have at last acted upon the appeal from the Jefferson Circuit Court against W. C. D. Whips for conducting a lottery. The Circuit Court dismissed the indictment and the Court of Appeals affirms that judgment. Two of the Judges, Hargrave and Hines, dissenting. Mr. Whips has promised to have the drawing proceed so soon as a favorable decision could be obtained.

From the accounts in our exchanges we conclude the Western Ky. Press Association meeting at Princeton was a pleasant and profitable one. We regret that this office was not represented, but it was simply impossible. The Junior editor was quite sick, our Circuit Court approaching and business crowding upon us so that we could not spare a man to go. We like the tone of the resolutions adopted.

Hon. JOHN CHAPEZE, at one time Commonwealth's Attorney in this district, died suddenly of some disease of the heart, at his home in Hartford, Ky., one day last week. He was a prominent member of the Hartford Bar, was a modest, unassuming, and highly conscientious man, and was possessed of many rare qualities. To have appreciated the man it was necessary to have been intimately acquainted with him. He was much esteemed and will be greatly missed.—McLean County Progress.

The Western Kentucky Press Association met in Princeton May 11th and 12th. The bounds were extended to include the thirty-five counties of the First Superior Court district. The following officers were elected: Zeno F. Young, Madisonville Times; President; L. T. Flippo, Princeton Banner; Vice President; Clas M. Meacham, Hopkinsville; South Kentuckyian, Secretary; T. G. Bowley, Bowling Green Gazette; Treasurer. Adjourned to meet at the call of the Executive Committee.

It is true, and we repeat it, that the editor of this paper was a Democrat when the editor of the Echo was a baby, and he expects to be a Democrat when such wishy-washy, hair-brained youths as he of the Echo is politically dead and forgotten. It all becomes one who, from all appearances, does not know the first principle of true Democracy, and who probably never read a Democratic platform in his life, to talk of "eracification" because we have the Republican ticket in our paper. We told the jackanapes last week that the ticket was put in by the Republican Committee and paid off for advertising rates, but he fails to see the point. As far as the paper is concerned, it is Democratic in its every part, but it does not wilfully suppress any fact that common honesty requires should be made known, and further, (and that is what hurts the Echo) it will not support any unworthy man for office, and we take pride in saying that there is no party less keen enough to make us do so. Democracy never drove a man to the support of a libertine, and it never did exclude legitimate advertising from a Democratic paper.

JAMES VICK, the great florist and seedsman of Rochester, N. Y., is dead.

The convention to nominate a Superior Court Judge has been called to meet in Hopkinsville, June 30th. County conventions are directed to be held June 24th.

Some of Captain Henry's friends have been very emphatic in denying that he secured his nomination by bargain and intrigue with Gaines and Poore, but the gentleman himself admitted it when called on to deny it by Col. Jacob. The same beat clay fifty years ago and it should beat Henry this year.

MR. M. S. CARRICO, Democratic nominee for Sheriff of Daviess county, has withdrawn, and recommends A. B. Miller, present incumbent, as his successor. Mr. Miller has made a good Sheriff, took the office when it was going begging, has had it but a fractional part of a term, and should in justice, be re-elected.

COL. J. A. MUNDAY met with a very serious accident, near Morganfield, Union county, several days ago. In company with Mr. E. P. Millett of Owensboro, he was on his way to the latter place, and the horse became frightened and ran away, demolishing the buggy and bruising Col. Munday up considerably. Mr. Millett was almost entirely unhurt.

JUDGE WILLIAMS, of Owensboro, a candidate for Judge of the Superior Court, in his speech yesterday Tuesday last, The Judge is a splendid specimen of manhood, sixty years old, but vigorous and in fine health. He is a profound and original thinker on all the living topics, and his conversations are rich in information and legal learning. Judge Williams will be a safe investment in the Superior Court Bench.

He made a fine impression here and in Allen, where he announced himself Monday.—Bowling Green Gazette.

THE HERALD is and has always been a Democratic paper, but independently so. It does not belong to the Democratic committee, county, district or state; it was established and is run with our own money and in the way we honestly conceive to be the best for the Democratic party, for the people, for good government and right, and it is quite funny to see a man like A. L. Morton, who lays some sort of claim to common sense, get up before an intelligent audience and move that the Senior editor resign and they would select a man to fill his place. Such a thing was fully as ridiculous as it would have been had we moved that Mr. A. L. Morton resign the control of his farm and let some man be selected who we might think would manage it to suit our notion better than he was doing. Should we ever do such a foolish thing we trust our friends will see that a writ de l'ancien inquarante be issued and a committee appointed to take charge of us.

THE COURT of Appeals have at last acted upon the appeal from the Jefferson Circuit Court against W. C. D. Whips for conducting a lottery. The Circuit Court dismissed the indictment and the Court of Appeals affirms that judgment. Two of the Judges, Hargrave and Hines, dissenting. Mr. Whips has promised to have the drawing proceed so soon as a favorable decision could be obtained.

AFTER the speaking Monday a part of the Democrats in attendance, say about 100, this is the estimate of W. D. Coleman, the chairman of the meeting assembled in the yard of the Court house and held a meeting ratifying the action of the State Central Committee and endorsing Captain Henry's candidacy.

"How do you like the new district?" was next asked?

"I like the district, think it a good one, but personally, I regretted to see good old Ohio county taken away from us.

In the loss of that county we part with a host of enthusiastic Democrats, and has a host of warm friends herein that will give him their earnest support.

PERSONAL.

Messrs. R. P. and J. Edwin Rowe returned from a business trip to Evansville last Sunday.

Thos. L. Baird, who has been sick for a week or two, is up and at his post again in the Emporium.

Dr. W. B. Arnett, of Owensboro, was at the Hartford House prepared to do anything in the dental line.

W. A. Gibson, of the firm of Anderson & Gibson, Caneyville, was in town last week visiting his mother and sisters.

W. H. Barnes, of Caneyville, is in town visiting relatives and friends. We had the pleasure of a call from him while here.

We had the pleasure, last Friday, of a call from Mrs. Nannie Feenster and Miss Louie Hart, living in the vicinity of Concord Church.

C. J. Yager, editor of the Littlefield Sunbeam, was in town several days last week shaking hands with old friends and acquaintances.

C. M. Kimbley, of South Carrollton, the gentlemanly store-keeper at Swarzengren's distillery, is making many warm friends in this his new home.—Bowling Green Gazette.

Hon. J. F. Bennett, a prominent merchant of Pellevo and Representative from Hancock county in the Legislature of 1877-79, was in town last Thursday. He complimented our paper by subscribing for a year.

Mrs. Rott Rodes, accompanied by her son, Wm. Rodes, left Monday morning for Hartford to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, Mr. John Chapeze, who died at his home in that place last week. Mr. Chapeze was one of the most prominent lawyers of Southern Kentucky and an exemplary gentleman. His place in society and at the bar will be very difficult to fill.—Bowling Green Democrat.

Mr. J. K. Shaver presented us Monday with some of the finest specimens of strawberries we have ever seen grown in Kentucky. Thanks, Mr. Shaver.

We tender thanks to Miss Lula Hart, of Concord, for the gift of a beautiful bouquet, last Friday. Its beauty and brightness is only exceeded by the kind donor.

Rev. J. H. Spurlin, Larue Co., Ky., writes: That chills have begun and people are calling for T. E. Richey's pills on every side, as they find them the best remedy they can get.

The public are indebted to Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., not only for their standard medicinal preparations, but also for improving the looks of the community by their incomparable Hair Vigor.

Special prices will be offered on sewing machines for the next ten days at Anderson's Bazaar. If you need a sewing machine, you would do well to pay attention to this fact.

You may say what you please about blankets and jeans, but it is now a fact admitted by all, that Cates are decidedly the best in the markets. Anderson's Bazaar always keeps a full stock at low-est prices.

BENEFITS OF FREE TRADE.

Extracts from "Quinine Jim's" Tariff Speech.

Will the House pardon me if I say that indulge us a reasonable pride in the fact that I happened to be the author of that bill, which has secured a reduction of seventy-eight cents an ounce upon an article which is as necessary, as flour in the domestic economy of every household. Notwithstanding that the quinine kings of Philadelphia it would breakdown their interests, it has secured a reduction of seventy-eight cents upon every ounce of the sulphate and salts of quinine, while at the same time two additional manufacturers of those sulphates and salts have been erected in the country to show that there has been in fact a reduction of seventy-eight cents per ounce on quinine since the passage of that act. I refer to the following table, prepared by J. M. Moore, Esq., a gentleman thoroughly familiar with this subject:

January, 1870, to June 30, 1870, price of one ounce of the new quinine, $3.61

July 1, 1870, to December 31, 1870, price of one ounce of the new quinine, $3.29

Saving per ounce, 34

The year 1871, taxed quinine, $3.76

The year 1880, free quinine, $3.63

Saving per ounce, 73

The year 1871, taxed quinine, $3.41

The year 1881, free quinine, $3.47

Saving per ounce, 66

On the average, it will shorten the average of one year, and it will shorten the average of two years, with duty on, was $3.41. The average saving, with duty off, is $3.47, or a half dollars, from July, 1870, to December, 1881, was $8.65. Therefore the average reduction is $8.65.

While it is not always true that an American manufacturer adds the full amount of the duty to the product, yet it has been estimated by the most competent to judge, and has never been disputed, that in the average, he adds to his products, at least two-thirds of the duty imposed upon the foreign article, or, in other words, he sells just short of the point, which would permit the foreign article to compete with him, and thus secures absolute possession and control of the home market. In this way he inflicts tens of millions of dollars upon the people.
In the first place, he presents the Government from receiving any revenue from the article which otherwise would be imported, and in the second place he compels the American farmer and other consumers to pay him from twenty-five to forty per cent, more than it is really worth its real value being what it would sell for in open market in comparison with like products from every other place.

The Henry Matter.

Recently we took down the name of Thos. J. Henry from our masthead and our action in the matter was final. We had become thoroughly satisfied that the damaging charges made against him were true, and subsequent events and further investigation but confirm our convictions. To this, that after long delay, the Executive Committee, to whom we had referred the case, and by their action decided that the Captain will "pass muster." Following this the Courier-Journal, after weeks of profound silence—though the facts were at its doors—has taken up the restrain, and has done some fine special pleading, evincing an entire lack of sympathy for the Captain.
But the people are not satisfied. The Court stands boldly forth that the investigation, so loudly praised by the Courier-Journal, is a mere sham, nothing more nor less than a very poor job of "white washing." Even a portion of King's sworn statement was withheld from the report, and this, for obvious reasons.
Captain Henry appeared twice at the Willard on the night of his escape, and his first appearance, the one when he used the coarse vulgar language in the hearing of ladies, was the one concerning which the Committee did not desire to hear the testimony.

On the contrary, we learn from a recent visit to Louisville, was on this shameful "tour" for about a week, a large portion of that time being spent at dens of infamy, the names of which sound too coarse for ears polite. The question forces itself upon us, what is duty in this matter? In the premises we might as well say the duty we owe ourselves, as individuals, and to the State as citizens, is paramount to that we owe a political party. And for the honor of the State and the Democratic party, we say it is time to stop short and reflect. The Appellate Court of Kentucky ought to be a severe reproach.
Eighteen months a prominent member of the office was a candidate and he was charged with the commission of a grave crime. The evidence was such that Gov. Leslie and the remainder of the Commission who issued certificates of election, declined to pass him and on negligence in obtaining a trial on a technicality. Later on, one of the members of this same Court was charged with the commission of a high crime, and from the evidence produced on the trial, involving said charge, the intelligent people of the State differ very widely as to the facts involved. And now comes Capt. Henry, charged with conducting himself in a manner unbecoming society, if true, and yet the party "Bosses" and their henchmen wish to force this manseating dose down the throats of the people. The people are sovereigns and there should be an open protest all along the line, and the machinel politicians should pass in their checks. The Democratic party has been doing a great deal of trickster-ship, machine politicians and time-serving treacherous, and unworthy and mean-serving office-holders.

For ourselves we can't stomach Mr.
Henry and call for his removal, and the subsequent removal of all worthless confi-dants and enemies of all good people.
There are hundreds of good Democrats in this portion of Kentucky that will fully endorse these views. We are not bolts and will have nothing to do with the Jacob movement. But we say any set of politicians that will persist in forcing such a policy on their party deserve a rebuke and sooner or later it will come in merited defeat.—Bowling Green Democrat.

Owes Another Obligation.

Forgive, is the plea in Henry's case, and which the party ought to do in accordance with the spirit of humanity we wish as the Bible injunction, but the party owes another obligation of equal, if not superior force, that is, to itself, a disregard of which has brought it already to the verge of ruin. If it forgets itself in this emergency, under such circumstances, it possesses neither courage nor virtue enough to be worthy of perpetuation.—Bowling Green Register.

Almost Unanimous.

This county seems to be almost unanimously in favor of Hon. Geo. W.
Williams for Superior Court Judge. Indeed, his candidacy may be considered in the light of a preemption on the public sentiment of Breckinridge. To judge from the general talk that reaches us, other candidates will only waste time and money by visiting us.—Breckinridge News.
